

FACT SHEET

Name of the event:	Grand Prix 24h de Tremblant
Description:	A friendly Ski-a-Thon for teams of 4-6 skiers who will spend 24 consecutive hours relay skiing on the slopes of Tremblant. Open to anyone who wants to rise to and surpass a challenge in support of a good cause – from intermediate to expert skiers and boarders. It's all part of 3 days of activities and open-air concerts.
Dates:	December 13-15, 2002
Grand Prix hours:	From 12:00 noon on Saturday, December 14 to 1:00 p.m. on Sunday, December 15 (a one-hour pause is required between day- and night-time skiing on Saturday)
Where:	Mont-Tremblant, Québec
Beneficiary charities:	Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation Fondation Mont-Tremblant
Promoters:	Formula Charity (Suisse) Tremblant
Patrons:	Jacques Villeneuve and Craig Pollock
Number of teams:	± 150 teams
Number of participants:	± 800 participants
Registration fees:	$75 per individuals $3,000 per corporate teams
Tremblant 2002's objective:	More than $300,000
How to register / Web site:	www.tremblant.ca (and follow the links to GP 24h)
Media relations:	Johanne Lépine / Paul Vaillancourt Torchia Communications Tel: (514) 288-8290 Cell: JL (514) 993-1319 / PV (514) 996-6224